Good to know:

- This product is manufactured and sold by ArduSimple, designed by Sparkfun.
- This product is the same as part number GPS-16481.
- You are allowed to sell your version of this board (as is or with modifications)
- This product is compatible but doesn't include multiband GNSS antenna, which is necessary to use the product. The module will not give good performance with a standard GNSS antenna, requires a multiband one.
